Masterpieces for Merrehope: A Celebration of Art & Inspiration

Thursday, August 21 | Meridian Museum of Art | 6:00–8:00 PM

Immerse yourself in an evening of exceptional artwork and artistic flair at Masterpieces for Merrehope, happening Thursday, August 21 at the lovely Meridian Museum of Art.

This exciting event brings together a stunning collection of original works from local and Mississippi artists. Many of the featured pieces were created during Plein Air at Merrehope this past June, capturing the beauty of the historic 1859 Merrehope mansion and its picturesque grounds. Additional artwork in a variety of styles and subjects—ranging from landscapes to abstracts to artist's choice—will also be available in a silent auction.

We are fortunate to have a thriving and generous art community in Meridian—artists who not only bring beauty and creativity to our city but who continuously support efforts that uplift and celebrate it. Their enthusiasm, talent, and dedication make events like Masterpieces for Merrehope possible. Their support of both the Meridian Museum of Art and Merrehope is a shining example of the way art strengthens community and preserves our cultural heritage.

Guests will enjoy an unforgettable evening of visual inspiration, complemented by great company, entertainment, tasty bites, and adult beverages. Whether you're an avid collector or just love art, you'll have the opportunity to view, bid on, and potentially take home a one-of-a-kind masterpiece.

Come dressed as your favorite artist or simply embrace your own creative style—artsy or casual. It's all about celebrating creativity in its many forms.

Doors open at 6:00 PM, and silent auction bidding will close at 8:00 PM.
Tickets are $25 and available at Merrehope, World of Flowers or from a board member.
